PRIVACY

Edge is committed to the protection of your privacy and is bound by the National Privacy Principles for the handling of your information. Edge's Privacy Policy can be viewed online by visiting our website (edgeunderwriting.com.au).

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything you are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

9. RISK MANAGEMENT DETAILS

An Insured's Risk Management details are probably the most important details of all and greatly assist in our understanding of the overall exposure, including which bits the Insured handles and which bits transfer to us. This can have a material impact on the premium and deductibles or could even be the difference between us accepting or declining a risk.

Please describe below what systems/processes/procedures the Insured has in place to....

1. Identity,
 2. Assess,
 3. Control (avoid / reduce), and
 4. Monitor & review
-risk, relevant to their Public & Products Liability exposure.
